

Legal Remedies When Your Spouse Won't Cooperate in Divorce

Court-backed actions for common obstacles: hiding assets, skipping court, violating orders, or delaying progress.

Default Judgment

If your spouse ignores divorce filings, a judge can grant divorce without their participation after proper notice.

Motion to Compel

Used when a spouse avoids hearings, skips deadlines, or causes unreasonable delays without violating court orders.

Discovery Requests & Subpoenas

Legally demand hidden financial records, documents, or third-party disclosures.

Contempt Petition

For direct violations of court orders. Can lead to fines, deadlines, or even a body attachment warrant.

Take back control. Learn how ABM helps clients overcome obstacles and stay on track.

Speak With a Divorce Attorney

312-626-0502 | www.illinoislawforyou.com